
Take the SAT in Your School

SHOW COLLEGES HOW READY YOU ARE

You're taking the SAT at your school on:

The SAT is a globally recognized college admission test that's accepted at all U.S. colleges. Taking the SAT and doing well on it is a great way to show off the skills and knowledge colleges care about. The SAT also offers:

- Connections to Schools You Want to Go to: If you opt in to the Student Search Service[®] when you take the SAT, you'll hear from colleges, universities, and scholarship programs looking for students just like you.
- Career and Future Planning: All students who take the SAT get free access to Roadmap to Careers, a unique online tool that can help you find careers you're passionate about.

Here's what you can expect on the SAT

- No Penalty for Guessing: Scoring is straightforward—you just get points on the questions you answer correctly.
- Everyday Words: The SAT tests the words you'll encounter after high school.
- Essential Math: The SAT tests the math you'll need no matter what major or career you choose.

If you have questions about taking the SAT at your school, speak to your counselor.

Start getting ready for test day with free, personalized resources created by the College Board and Khan Academy at satpractice.org.